CALIFORNIA STATE STUDENT TUITION RECOVERY FUND (STRF) Relates To California Students Only.

The State of California created the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic losses suffered by California residents who were students attending schools approved by, or recognized to offer Short-term Career Training with the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education (Bureau) or BPPE.

You may be eligible for STRF if you are a California resident, prepaid tuition, paid the STRF fee, and suffered an economic loss as a result of any of the following:

- ◆ The school closed before the course of instruction was completed.
- ◆ The school's failure to pay refunds or charges on behalf of a student to a third party for license fees or any other purpose, or to provide equipment or materials for which a charge was collected within 180 days before the closure of the school.
- ◆ The school's failure to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federally guaranteed student loan program as required by law or to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the school prior to closure in excess of tuition and other costs.
- ◆ The school's breach or anticipatory breach of the agreement for the course of instruction.
- ◆ There was a decline in the quality of the course of instruction within 30 days before the school closed, or if the decline began earlier than 30 days prior to closure, a time period of decline determined by the Bureau.
- ◆ The school committed fraud during the recruitment or enrollment or program participation of the student.

You may also be eligible for STRF if you were a student that was unable to collect a court judgment rendered against the school for violation of the Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education Reform Act of 1989.

You must pay the state-imposed fee for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) if all of the following applies to you:

- ◆ You are a student, who is a California resident and prepays all or part of your tuition either by cash, guaranteed student loans, or personal loans, and
- ◆ Your total charges are not paid by any third-party such as an employer, government program or other payer unless you have a separate agreement to repay the third party.

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF fee if either of the following applies:

- ◆ You are not a California resident.
- ◆ Your total charges are paid by a third party, such as an employer, government program or other payer, and you have no separate agreement to repay the third party.

 Note, This is a California State program for California resident's further protection.

The State of California Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) $0.00 (zero cents) per $1,000 tuition. You must pay the state-imposed fee for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) if all of the following applies to you: 1) You are a student, who is a California resident and prepays all or part of your tuition either by cash, guaranteed student loans, or personal loans, and 2) Your total charges are not paid by any third-party payer such as an employer, government program or other payer unless you have a separate agreement to repay the third party. You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF fee if either of the following applies: 1) You are not a California resident. 2) Your total charges are paid by a third party, such as an employer, government program or other payer, and you have no separate agreement to repay the third party.

(5,CCR §76215(a) and 5,CCR §76215(b))

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL-CANCELLATION AND REFUND

The student shall have the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and receive a full refund before the first lesson and materials are received. Cancellation is effective on the date written notice of cancellation is sent. The institution shall make the refund pursuant to section 71750 of the Regulations. If the institution sent the first lesson and materials before an effective cancellation notice was received, the institution shall make a refund within 45 days after the student's return of the materials. (5,CCR §71716(b))

(1) NHI shall transmit all lessons and materials to the student if the student has fully paid for the educational program and, after having received the first lesson and initial materials, requests in writing that all of the material be sent. (2) If an institution transmits the balance of the material as the student requests, the institution shall remain obligated to provide the other educational services it agreed to provide, such as responses to student inquiries, student and faculty interaction, evaluation and comment on lessons submitted by the student, but shall not be obligated to pay any refund after all of the lessons and material are transmitted. (5,CCR §71716(c)(1)(2))

All CANCELLATIONS OR WITHDRAWAL OF ENROLLMENT OR TO RECEIVE ANY APPLICABLE REFUND MUST BE IN WRITING:

You may drop off, fax, e-mail or certify mail your withdrawal to:
Natural Healing Institute of Naturopathy, Inc., Director of Admissions
2236 Encinitas Blvd. Suite E, Encinitas, CA, 92024-3744
Fax: 760-943-9477, E-mail: enroll@naturalhealinginst.com

If the student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund. (CEC §94911(f))

The enrollment agreement shall include a statement specifying that, if the student defaults on a federal or state loan, both the following may occur:

- (1) The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan.
- (2) The student may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other government financial assistance until the loan is repaid. (CEC §94911(g)(1)(2))
